

CONGRESSIONAL REPORT:

Robert D. Hayes, trustee of a Maryland school for tax avoidance again pleaded that his role forbade him from revealing details of the operations of Americans Building Constitutionally. He refused to tell a House subcommittee whether ABC had received any funds from underworld sources. He later said that to his knowledge, the group had not received money from sources engaged in illegal activities.